

FEDERAL AVIATION REGULATION: Title 14 – Code of Federal Regulations

FEDERAL AVIATION REGULATION: Title 14 – Code of Federal Regulations

This course is designed as a review of the Federal Aviation Regulations for the Aviation Maintenance Technician and associated support personnel.

The course is taught with a basic premise of how the FAR affects a technician, who within the organization may also be affected, how to comply with the FAR and how the FAR can get a technician into trouble with the FAA if he/she does not comply with the regulation.

This is a very interactive class with group discussions regarding interpretation of Federal Aviation Regulations (FARs).

OTHER AVAILABLE COURSES:

- Repair Station Part 145(24 hours)
- OSHA / EPA for Aviation Maintenance(16 hours)
- Maintenance Resource Management(16 hours)
- Safety Management Systems (SMS)
